

HELP WANTED: Assistant Needed

We have a new emperor and we have a meritocracy where we are choosing talented people to join our kingdom. Scholars are much preferred, if you are not educated, this job might not be right for you, we need well educated people. We need an assistant that will know laws quite well and is a fast reader to help the judge at needed times.

Location: Main Court

Salary: 29 Yen a Week

Benefits:

Will be provided a personal room for work and shelter, will be well respected and elevated, food is provided 24/7, traveling advances, personal protection when outside of kingdom, and a card of access.

Description:

Government- We respect well educated people and we don't judge the poor, we give chances, before we have family members mostly working in the kingdom and now we are allowing scholar-officials in the kingdom.

Job- Will provide legal information for the judge inside of the kingdom, will tell the judge laws and suggestions for judging, will look thro laws and carefully inspect a person and tell the judge what he missed, provide details on the case that is easily ignored, and be able to read body language and know almost the truth.

Primary Duties: Check law book, read laws, give information to judge, and treat other with appropriate behavior.

Education: Over 15 years of education and score with no lower than an A-, and have common sense, and good behavior during literature, respect others and have responsibility.

Experience: Doesn't really need THAT much experience, needs to advance writing, reading, logic, and reasoning.

Travel: Rarely needed, sometimes need to move courts to outside of the kingdom in order to judge in other places if necessary.

Good luck! If you want to try out for this job, you can come tomorrow at anytime!